Dear J,

Wow! What a ride the last nine months have been. Thanks for continuing to offer up alternatives. I have not seen persistence like what you demonstrated...even when it looked as though you were going to lose the deal. You once again delivered, just like you always have over the years that I have been dealing with you.

Thanks for hanging in there and fighting the fight. I am so glad you did...we love our new location!

Sincerely,

Lehmer Dunn
